- This week's academic vocabulary word is CONSIDER. Here are 2 ways to give your child extra opportunities to hear and use the word CONSIDER!
  - ♦ What are some things you CONSIDER when you are getting dressed on Saturdays? Do you CONSIDER the weather or what you're doing that day, or do you just grab anything you like to wear? Are weekdays different?
  - ♦ When people are CONSIDERATE it means that they think about other people's feelings and do kind things that make people feel good. Did you see anyone acting CONSIDERATE today? What did that person do? Do you hear CONSIDER in CONSIDERATE?
    - Remind your child that the word CONSIDER means to think carefully about something carefully, so you can make a good decision. (CONSIDERATE means to think carefully, too, but to think carefully about other people's feelings and act in ways that are kind.)

- How else can you build your child's reading skills through TALK?
  - o Try these questions taken from different TalkOn age groups this week!
    - ♦ More than one billion people live in China. What is the sound at the beginning of the word China? (/ch/) If you say that sound a few times in a row, what vehicle do you sound like? (a train!)
    - ♦ Movie snacks can be very different in other countries. In India, crispy samosas (small pastries filled with meat or vegetables) are popular, while in China, you can munch on dried, salted plums. What do you think makes a good snack to eat when watching a movie? Why?
    - ♦ If you moved to Cairo, Egypt, and could see the Great Pyramid of Giza from your window, what would you want to know about that huge, ancient structure, built over 4,500 years ago? Do you think people who see it all the time even notice it?
