The Department's Educational Philosophy

Art is essential in education. Students engage in art production, art history, art criticism and discussion of aesthetics to broaden their understanding of self and community, to place the arts in an historical and cultural context, and to experience the arts as a universal form of human expression and communication.

Guiding Principles

The art curriculum does the following:

- Emphasizes development of students' skills and understanding of creating and responding.
- Teaches the language inherent in the four disciplines: art production, art history, art criticism, aesthetics.
- Enables students to apply both imagination and rational thinking to the making of art.
- Enables students to invent and explore multiple solutions to a problem.
- Enables students to understand the value of reflection and critical judgment in creative work.
- Promotes knowledge and understanding of the historical and cultural context of the arts – how world cultures have been influenced and shaped by the arts.
- Facilitates positive peer interaction, including receiving and using feedback.
- Encourages self-motivation to create and problem solve.
- Uses artistic literacy as a natural enhancement to learning in other content areas.
- Fosters positive attitudes toward art and opinions of other artists.
- Uses a variety of assessment methods to evaluate what students know and are able to do.
- Introduces career possibilities.

Background to the Curriculum

Advanced Photography has been offered in varying formats at ABRHS over the past twenty years. The existing curriculum was developed in 1994 by Liz Mackay. This course currently meets the following Massachusetts Art Curriculum Frameworks Standards: 1 (Methods, Materials and Techniques), 2 (Elements and Principles of Design), 3 (Observation, Abstraction, Invention and Expression), 4 (Drafting, Revising and Exhibiting), 5 (Critical Response), 6 (Purpose and Meaning in the Arts), 7 (Roles of Artists in the Community), 8 (Concepts of Style, Stylistic Influences, and Stylistic Change), 9 (Inventions, Technologies in the Arts).

Core Topics/Questions/Concepts/Skills

Advanced Photography is taught as an art form. The technical and compositional considerations in Photography 1 are built upon in Advanced Photography. Additional emphasis is placed on seeking unique and personal ways to “see” and record images. Students are also introduced to new approaches, including but not limited to multiple exposures, Polaroid transfers, hand-colored images, computer-manipulated images, and aesthetic and technical considerations related to a variety of advanced film and paper types.

Course-End Learning Objectives

Learning objectives	Corresponding state standards, where applicable
1] To build upon the technical processes of photography (camera, film and printing) introduced in Photography 1. Aesthetic considerations related to advanced film and paper type are also emphasized.	1.9 Demonstrate the ability to create 2D and 3D works that show knowledge of unique characteristics of particular media, materials, and tools.
2] Contact Negative Printing: To explore an alternative printing process while reviewing the darkroom printing procedures. (High contrast printing for Photo 3)	9.3 Identify and describe examples of how artists make innovative use of technologies and inventions.
3] Still Life: To explore traditional and non-traditional approaches to working with still life while demonstrating a knowledge of limited depth-of-field and reviewing compositional considerations. (E. Steichen, R. Bernhardt, I. Cunningham, M. Kon)	1.13 Make reasonable choices of 2D and 3D media, materials, tools, and techniques to achieve desired effects in specific projects.
4] Thematic Study: To demonstrate the ability to pursue a theme of interest in depth. Images are to relate thematically and technically. Discovering how other artists work thematically will occur through research and will be presented through written and or verbal presentations. Thematic images will be mounted and exhibited with an artist statement. (H. Cartier-Bresson, Sally Mann, D. Arbus, M. E. Mark, S. Skogland)	1.14 Demonstrate a mastery of tools and techniques in one medium. 2.7 Create artwork that demonstrates facility in selective use of elements and principles of design to establish a personal style. 4.16 Organize and present an exhibit of a body of their own work to others. 5.9 Use published sources, either traditional or electronic, to research a body of work or an artist and present findings in written or oral form. 5.11 Analyze a body of work, or the work of one artist, explaining its meaning and impact on society, symbolism, and visual metaphor. 6.5 Interpret the meanings of artistic works based on evidence from artists' biographies, autobiographies, or videotaped or written interviews.
